

LAKE COUNTY ILLINOIS CASE NO. 08D0970

The Lake County IL family court has unjustly and improperly prevented Petitioner Steven Dick from having parenting time with his own three minor children, for the last 11 months. Resulting from a physical altercation which the mother, Respondent, April Neumann created and caused, Judge Elizabeth Rochford unjustly ruled that Steven was somehow responsible for this action, even though he was 15 miles away from the incident. The mother lied to police, informing them that the 13 year old son had choked her, however the video of the incident proves this did not occur. Elizabeth Rochford has consistently "protected" the Respondent, who has a level of wealth; so great, there is a protective order restricting knowledge and information of facts and figures to be shared and communicated outside of court. It is this wealth which has financially funded the on-going litigation of the past ten years, for the purposes of the Respondent controlling child custody. The issue and question at hand is, can minor children really be legally purchased in Illinois through the family court system?

The following Court Orders of Case No. 08D0970 just from the last year, clearly prove how Lake County, IL Family Courts have consistently favored Respondent April Neumann ... granting nearly ALL of her Motions, while denying ALL of Petitioner Steven Dick's Motions. Overly apparent bias and miscount control this case.

Again, the Lake County Family Court has continually proven its extreme respect and favor to the Respondent's wealth, which has enabled this case to litigate, funding any and all legal persons associated. This jurisdiction has unjustly ruled that both parties shall split fees 50-50, yet never has a judge to prove that both parties are financially able to pay the fees. Even so, Steven Dick continues to be taken advantage of and abused as a Pro Se.

Case No. 08D0970 began on May 8, 2008 and has appeared on average of at least once per month over the last ten years. This case's next court appearance is January 29, 2018, at which time Steven Dick has been previously threatened by The Court to be taken into custody for not paying Guardian ad Litem excessive fees of $18,000.00+. Steven has previously proven he is unable to pay these fees, however The Court continues to abuse Steven.

Steven Dick has previously shared this information (numerous times) with the Governor of Illinois office and states that the misconduct against him from the Lake County courts is shameful as he is certain this action would never occur to anyone related within its industry. Steven has submitted eight significant detailed complaints to the Illinois Judicial Inquiry Board who has not yet been presented his filings, now nine months later.

The last one year of Court Order follows, proving how The Court has "protected" the wealth Respondent, while abusing the Petitioner.
